Brenan House, 21 Vale Square, Ramsgate is an impressive Grade II listed Georgian property and former care home, offering substantial and versatile accommodation arranged over multiple floors within a sought-after conservation area. Extending to approximately 6,200 sq ft, the property comprises of 12 bedrooms, lift access across the principal floors, 2 large reception rooms, and a range of en-suites and a separate bathroom. Many of the facilities are designed with accessibility in mind, including wheelchair-accessible showers and bath, making the property well-suited for continued care (currently classified C2 usage), conversion into apartments, a boutique hotel/guest house, or an impressive family home (subject to change of use). The possibilities are endless with Brenan House.

The basement houses a fully equipped commercial kitchen which received a 5-star Food Hygiene rating, alongside a pantry, two additional storerooms, and a laundry room fitted with 2 industrial washing machines and dryer.

The lower ground floor features two spacious ensuite bedrooms, 3 separate WC's, and a comfortable lounge with a serving station, leading through to a bright conservatory housing the dining room, which overlooks the gardens. This level also includes access to a clinical treatment room / hairdressing area for residents.

Across the ground, first, and second floors are ten further bedrooms, an additional lounge with Victorian casement doors opening onto a balcony, with views across the communal gardens of Vale Square and of Christ Church. The top floor offers a self-contained apartment, comprising of a bedroom with an en-suite and an open-plan lounge/kitchen.

Externally, the property benefits from a well-maintained rear garden and an outbuilding with power, which is currently used as an office and an additional storage area.
